

Contents

A NOTE ON ORTHOGRAPHY AND TRANSLATION	xiii
Introduction	I
1. The Setting: The Idea of the Civilizing Mission in 1895 and the Creation of the Government General	11
2. Public Works and Public Health: Civilization, Technology, and Science (1902-1914)	38
3. Forging the Republican Sujet : Schools, Courts, and the Attack on Slavery (1902-1908)	73
4. "En faire des hommes": William Ponty and the Pursuit of Moral Progress (1908-1914)	107
5. Revolt and Reaction: World War I and Its Consequences (1914-1930)	142
6. "Democracy" Reinvented: Civilization Through Association (1914-1930)	174
7. Civilization Through Coercion: Human Mise en Valeur in the 1920's	212
Conclusion	246
NOTES	259
BIBLIOGRAPHY	327
INDEX	355